Issues in Domestic Violence: Introduction and Theories

1) “Depriving the person of sleep” is an example of what type of domestic violence?
   a) Emotional abuse
   b) Intimidation
   c) Sexual abuse
   d) Physical violence

2) What percent of stalking victims are women?
   a) 48%
   b) 58%
   c) 68%
   d) 78%

3) It is believed that only ____ of all physical assaults against females by intimate partners are reported to the police.
   a) 1/6
   b) 1/5
   c) 1/4
   d) 1/3

4) Which group conceptualizes violence as a response to intermittent conflict?
   a) Psychological/Medical
   b) Family Violence Researchers
   c) Domestic Violence Movement
   d) Legal System

5) Which theory holds that human aggression is under stimulus, reinforcement, and cognitive control?
   a) Frustration-aggression theory
   b) Cognitive-behavioral theory
   c) Social Learning theory
   d) Psychodynamic theory

6) An anger log is an intervention associated with which theory?
   a) Frustration-aggression theory
   b) Cognitive-behavioral theory
   c) Social Learning theory
   d) Psychodynamic theory
7) Which is not a part of Walker’s “cycle of abuse”?
   a) Courtship phase
   b) Tension building phase
   c) Violent Episode
   d) Honeymoon phase

8) “Acceptance of violence as a means to settle disputes – especially interpersonal disputes” is an example of which type of risk factor?
   a) Individual
   b) Family
   c) Community
   d) Societal

9) Which therapy emphasizes the strengths and potential of the individual rather than the problems and dysfunctions?
   a) Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
   b) Solutions Focused Treatment
   c) Psychodynamic Psychotherapy
   d) Participation Award Therapy

10) Which type of Solution Focused Treatment question is “What will your child notice is different about you when you are no longer in the abuse relationship”?
    a) Exceptions
    b) Outcome
    c) Coping
    d) Relationship